

SARAH PRESENTS AWARDS AT ANNUAL DINNER WITH SARAH

The Annual “Dinner with SARAH” event was held recently at Café Allegre in Madison with Awards of Appreciation presented to Mrs. Geraldine Lesunaitis, the Guilford Education Association, NewAlliance Foundation, and The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven. Each honoree was thanked for their ongoing support of the SARAH family. Mrs. Geraldine Lesunaitis has been a longtime sponsor of “Dinner with SARAH” and the SARAH Gala. The Guilford Education Association has supported SARAH with an annual Read-a-thon in the Guilford Public Schools. NewAlliance Foundation and The Community Foundation for Greater New Haven have provided ongoing grant support for SARAH’s KIDSTEPS programs. SARAH is a family of agencies that provide programs and services for people with intellectual and other disabilities who live in Connecticut (www.sarahfoundation.org).

Pictured left to right: Mary Ann Ott, Associate Director; Kim Healey, Executive Director of the NewAlliance Foundation; accept the award from Denise Rose, Executive Director of the SARAH Foundation.

Guilford Education Association President Debby Butler and Read-a-thon Coordinator Lynn Curtis.

Dottie Weston-Murphy (left), Vice President of Donor and Professional Services and Angela Powers, Senior Vice President for Development, Stewardship, and Donor Services accept the Award of Appreciation for the Community Foundation for Greater New Haven.

Pictured left to right: Mrs. Geraldine Lesunaitis and Denise Rose, Executive Director of the SARAH Foundation.